LR Gen 101 SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

(a) Title. These Local Rules are adopted pursuant to Title 28 United States Code, Section 2071, Rule 83 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and shall be known and cited as the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island ("Local Rules" or "DRI LR ___").

(b) Effective Date. These Local Rules shall become effective on January 1, 2006 and shall apply to all cases then pending and thereafter filed, subject to any amendments adopted thereafter.

(c) Applicability. These Local Rules and any amendments shall apply to all proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island; provided, however, that if the Court determines that exceptional circumstances exist in which application of a Rule would create an injustice or undue hardship, the Court may suspend the operation of that Rule under those circumstances. In addition to these rules, all parties must comply with any and all pretrial order(s) issued in any case, except where they conflict in which case the pretrial order(s) shall govern.

(d) Previous Rules and Orders Superseded. All prior rules, standing orders and general orders are superseded and abrogated.

(e) Construction. These Rules should be construed consistently with other applicable statutes and rules to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of all proceedings before the Court.

(f) Definitions.

(1) "Court" refers to the judge or judicial officer before whom a proceeding is pending, unless otherwise stated or unless the context in which the term is used plainly requires otherwise.

(2) "Conventionally Filed/Served" means documents presented to the Court or party in paper or other non-electronic format.

(3) "Document" means any written matter filed by or with the Court, whether filed conventionally or electronically, including but not limited to motions, objections, pleadings, applications, petitions, notices, declarations, stipulations, affidavits, exhibits, briefs, memoranda of law and orders.

(4) "ECF" means the Court's Electronic Case Filing System, which is an automated system that receives and stores documents in electronic form.

(5) "Electronic Filing" or "Electronically Filed" means the transmission of a document in Portable Document Format ("PDF") for filing using the ECF system facilities.

(6) "Filing User" means those attorneys who have a court-issued login and password to file documents electronically in this judicial district.

(7) "Main Document" means motions, objections, replies, stipulations, waivers, notices and other pleadings, but does not include attachments or exhibits to such pleadings.

(8) "NEF" means Notice of Electronic Filing, which is the email notice automatically generated by ECF each time a document is electronically filed.

(9) "PDF" means Portable Document Format. This includes both "Electronically Converted PDF Documents," which are created from a word processing system (MS Word, WordPerfect, etc.) using PDF creation software and are text-searchable, and "Scanned PDF Documents," which are created from paper documents run through a scanner and can be made text-searchable.

(10) "Megabyte" (MB) is the amount of computer storage needed to store 1,048,576 characters, which is equivalent to approximately 260 pages of an "Electronically Converted PDF Document" or 20 pages of a "Scanned PDF Document".

(11) A "Page" from a PDF document for purposes of these rules must be the equivalent of a "page" from a conventionally filed (paper) document which was prepared to conform with the requirements of these Local Rules.

Effective 1/3/11: §§ (f) and (g) incorporated into new § (f). Effective 1/5/09: § (b) amended, and § (g) added.

LR Gen 102 DOCUMENTS CONTAINING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

(a) Privacy Protections.

(1) In General. In compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, and the policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States, and in order to address the privacy concerns created by Internet access to court documents, parties or non-parties shall refrain from including, or shall partially redact where inclusion is necessary, the following personal data identifiers from all documents filed with the Court:

(a) MINORS' NAMES: Use of the minors' initials only;
(b) SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS: Use of the last four numbers only;
(c) DATES OF BIRTH: Use of the year of birth only;
(d) FINANCIAL ACCOUNT NUMBERS: Identify the type of account and the financial institution, but use only the last four numbers of the account number; and
(e) HOME ADDRESSES: Use the city and state only (in criminal cases only).

(2) Responsibility for Removing Personal Information. It is the responsibility of any party or non-party filing a document, not the Clerk's Office, to review each document to determine if pleadings must be modified and are in the proper form.

(3) Corrective Action. In cases where the above personal information does appear on documents filed with the Court, the party or non-party responsible for the filing shall file a Motion to Redact, along with a redacted version of the document containing personal information in compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1 and Judicial Conference policy. Upon receipt of the Motion to Redact, the Clerk shall grant the motion by text order, restrict the document containing the above personal information from the docket, and replace it with the redacted version

(b) Sealed Documents Generally.

(1) Documents filed with the Court may not be sealed unless ordered by the Court. If a party or non-party filing a document has a good faith basis for believing that a document should be sealed, the document shall be accompanied by a motion to seal, which explains why the document should be sealed.

(2) Unless the Court otherwise permits, if a party or non-party has good reason to believe that a document that such party or non-party proposes to file contains material that another party or non-party would maintain is confidential, the document shall not be filed until such other party or non-party has been notified and afforded an opportunity to file a motion to seal.

(3) If only a portion of a document contains confidential information, the party or non-party requesting sealing shall file both an unredacted version of the document and a redacted version that excises the confidential information.

(4) The motion to seal shall not be filed electronically, but shall be filed by hand or by mail, together with the documents or materials which are the subject of the motion.

(c) Filing of Sealed Documents in Civil Cases. Upon receipt of a motion to seal in a civil case, the clerk shall docket the motion but not the documents which are the subject of the motion and shall immediately transmit the motion and documents to the chambers of the judge to whom the case has been assigned. If the Court grants the motion to seal and unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the sealed envelope shall be retained by the clerk in a secure location until further order of the Court. If the Court denies the motion to seal, the motion shall be docketed and filed in accordance with these Local Rules, and the memorandum and the documents accompanying the motion shall be returned to the filer, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(d) Filing of Sealed Documents in Criminal Cases. Upon receipt of a motion to seal in a criminal case, the clerk shall immediately transmit the motion and the documents which are the subject of the motion to the chambers of the judge to whom the case has been assigned. If the Court grants the motion to seal, the motion to seal, the order granting the motion to seal, and the sealed documents shall be placed in an envelope which shall be sealed and to which a copy of the Court's order shall be affixed. The envelope shall then be retained by the clerk in a secure location until further order of the Court. If the Court denies the motion to seal, the motion shall be docketed and filed in accordance with these Local Rules, and the memorandum and the documents accompanying the motion shall be returned to the filer, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(e) Unsealing of Documents. Documents sealed by the Court may be unsealed at any time upon motion of a party or non-party or by the Court sua sponte, provided that the parties first are given notice and an opportunity to be heard.

Effective 1/3/11: §§ (a), (b), and (c) amended; §§ (a), (b), (c), and (d) redesignated as §§ (b), (c), (d), and (e); new § (a) added. Effective 3/17/08: §§ (a)(4), (b) and (c) amended.

(c) Witnesses.

(1) Scheduling. Counsel shall schedule witnesses in a manner that ensures that there will be no delays in trial.

(2) Examination. No witness may be examined by more than one attorney representing a party unless the Court otherwise permits.

LR Gen 105 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) New Cases.

(1) In General. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this Rule, each new case shall be randomly assigned to a district judge and a magistrate judge in a manner that evenly distributes the cases among them by type of classification as provided under LR Cv 5(b) or LR Cr 57(b).

(2) Related Cases. A civil or criminal case which the cover sheet indicates, or which the Clerk believes may be related to a case previously filed in this Court, shall be provisionally assigned to the judge to whom the related case was assigned. If the judge to whom the case is provisionally assigned determines that the case is not closely related, the judge shall return the case to the clerk for random assignment as provided in paragraph (a)(1) of this Rule.

(3) Re-filed Cases. A civil or criminal case that appears to involve substantially the same parties and issues as a case or proceeding that previously was brought in this Court and dismissed or otherwise terminated shall be provisionally assigned to the judge who originally was assigned the prior case or proceeding, or if already assigned, shall be transferred to the judge who originally was assigned the prior case or proceeding.

(b) Remanded Cases. Any case remanded to this Court for a new trial shall be reassigned to a judge other than the judge to whom the case previously was assigned. All other cases remanded to this Court shall be reassigned to the judge to whom the case was previously assigned, unless that judge determines that the interests of justice require that the case be assigned to a different judge.

(c) Emergency Matters. If immediate action is required with respect to some matter in a case and the judge to whom the case has been assigned is unavailable or otherwise unable to address that matter, the Clerk shall refer that matter to the Chief Judge. If the Chief Judge is unavailable, the Clerk shall present the matter to the next most senior active judge who is available to hear it. The judge to whom such matter is referred shall act only to the extent necessary to meet the immediate need, and only until the judge to whom the case was assigned becomes available to hear it. If a judge to whom such a matter is referred determines that no immediate action is required, the request for immediate action shall not thereafter be presented to another judge.

(b) Filing of Documents. Documents shall be filed with the clerk of the originating court.

LR Gen 107 REQUESTS FOR DAILY TRANSCRIPTS OF COURT PROCEEDINGS

Except for good cause shown, all requests for daily or expedited transcripts must be made in writing to the court reporter, if known, and if not, to the Clerk. A copy of the request must be provided to opposing counsel not later than 7 days before the hearing or trial to be transcribed.

Effective 12/1/2011: The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 12/1/2009: Rule amended.

CROSS-REFERENCES

LR Gen 107.1 ELECTRONIC AVAILABILITY AND REDACTION OF TRANSCRIPTS OF COURT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Applicability. The 90-day restriction policy and the redaction procedures for transcripts listed below apply only to transcripts of federal court proceedings. Other transcripts, except those exempt under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2(b) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1(b), will be subject to the redaction requirements contained in these rules if they are filed with this Court.

(b) Restricted Availability of Transcripts for First 90 Days after Filing. Transcripts will be e-filed by the court reporter or transcriber through CM/ECF, and they will be available at the Clerk's Office, for viewing only, for a period of 90 days after filing.

(c) Review of Transcripts. Once a transcript is filed, counsel of record (and unrepresented parties) must review the transcript and request redaction of any personal identifiers listed in Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, and LR Gen 102. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the following portions of the transcript must be reviewed: opening and closing statements made on the party's behalf; statements of the party; the testimony of any witnesses called by the party; sentencing proceedings (both the government and the defendant must review the transcript); and any other portion of the transcript as ordered by the court.

(1) "Standby" Counsel and CJA Attorneys. An attorney who is serving as appointed "standby" counsel for a pro se litigant must review the transcript as if the pro se party were his/her client. If an attorney represents a client pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act (CJA), including serving as standby counsel, the attorney conducting the review of the transcript is entitled to compensation under the CJA for functions reasonably performed to fulfill this obligation and for reimbursement of related reasonable expenses.

(d) Redaction Requests.

(1) Procedure. If counsel of record (or an unrepresented party) seeks a redaction of personal identifiers, a document entitled "Redaction Request" must be electronically filed within 21 days, or longer if the Court so orders, from the filing of the original transcript, indicating where the personal identifiers appear in the transcript by page and line and how they are to be redacted.

(2) Time Limits. If a Redaction Request or a Motion to Extend Time is not timely filed, no redactions will be made, and the original transcript will be remotely publicly available after 90 days.

(3) Additional Redactions. If a party wishes to request redactions in addition to personal identifiers, a separate Motion for Redaction of Transcript must be filed within 21 days from the filing of the original transcript. Until the Court has ruled on any such motion, the transcript will not be electronically available, even if the 90-day restriction period has ended.

(4) Filing of Redacted Transcripts. If a Redaction Request is filed, the court reporter or transcriber must perform the requested redactions and file a redacted version of the transcript within 31 days, or longer if the Court so orders, from the filing of the original transcript. Unless the Court orders the original unredacted electronic transcript to be sealed, it will be retained by the Clerk and will be available, for viewing only, at the public terminal at the Courthouse and remotely electronically available to any attorney of record who has purchased a copy from the court reporter.

(e) Purchase of Transcripts. During the 90-day period, a copy of the transcript, in paper or electronic form, may be obtained from the court reporter or transcriber at the rate established by the Judicial Conference. The transcript will be available, for viewing only, at the public terminal at the Courthouse and remotely electronically available to any attorney of record who has purchased a copy from the court reporter.

(f) Availability of Transcripts after 90 days. After the 90-day period has ended, the transcript will be available remotely to view, download or print through PACER, and to view and print at the Clerk's Office.

(1) Redacted Transcripts. If a redacted transcript is filed with the Court, the redacted transcript will be remotely electronically available to the public through PACER after 90 days from the date of filing of the original transcript. Remote access to the original unredacted transcript will remain restricted, but both the original transcript and the redacted transcript will be available for viewing at the Clerk's Office unless the Court orders the original transcript to be sealed.

(g) Transcripts of Petit Jury Empanelments.

(1) Whenever a court reporter receives a request for a transcript of a petit jury empanelment, the reporter will prepare two versions of the transcript: one complete, unredacted version and one redacted version. The redacted version will have the juror names and any sidebars redacted.

(2) Redaction of juror names means that only the first full name and last initial of the juror will be used by the court reporter in preparing the transcript. Redaction of a sidebar will result in a complete elimination of the sidebar from the transcript.

(3) The redacted transcript will be e-filed by the court reporter in accordance with, and be subject to, the provisions of this Rule.

(4) The complete, unredacted transcript will be e-filed by the court reporter for "restricted" viewing only by the Court and the parties. The "restricted" availability of the transcript to the parties will also be governed by the availability provisions of this Rule during the first 90 days after filing.

(5) If a non-party requests a complete, unredacted copy of a petit jury empanelment transcript, the request will be sent to the presiding judge in that case, and the presiding judge will make a determination as to whether or not the complete, unredacted copy should be provided to the non-party.

Effective 12/1/11: The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 108 INTERPRETERS

(a) Use of Interpreter. Whether a language or sign language interpreter is required in any proceeding shall be determined by the Court. No interpreter shall participate in any proceeding unless first approved by the Court.

(b) Requests for Interpreters.

(1) Cases Brought by the United States. In all criminal cases and in civil cases initiated by the United States, requests for interpreters shall be made to this Court's staff interpreter. The Federal Defender and counsel appointed by the Court representing an indigent client shall use the Court's staff interpreter, whenever possible, for all in-court proceedings.

Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, counsel for a party who intends to seek reimbursement for interpreter services provided outside of Court proceedings shall first request such services from the Court's staff interpreter. If the Court's staff interpreter is unavailable to provide such services, the staff interpreter will arrange for a suitable replacement.

(2) Other Cases. In all other cases, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a party seeking to utilize an interpreter shall be responsible for obtaining and compensating the interpreter; provided, however, any such interpreter who participates in a proceeding before the Court must first be approved in accordance with subsection (a) of this Rule.

(c) Number of Interpreters. Unless the Court otherwise orders for good cause shown, no more than one interpreter shall be provided, at Court expense, to any party.

(d) Auxiliary Aides for the Hearing Impaired. Interpreter services, including services rendered by a properly qualified sign language interpreter, for a person who is hearing-impaired or who otherwise has a communication disability shall be obtained in the same manner as language interpreter services. When a party or witness in a proceeding is hearing-impaired, the Court, where and to the extent appropriate, may provide auxiliary aids, such as real time transcription in lieu of a sign language interpreter.

LR Gen 210 DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

(a) Definition of "Court." As used in this Rule 210, the term "Court" refers to the active district judges of this Court, and any action taken or required by the "Court" refers to action by a majority of the active district judges.

(b) Initiation of Proceedings. Whenever allegations of misconduct by an attorney admitted or permitted to practice before this Court come to the Court's attention, whether by complaint or otherwise, and the applicable procedure is not otherwise provided for by these Rules, the Court may initiate disciplinary proceedings in any one or more of the following ways:

(1) If the matter has not already been referred by an individual judge to a disciplinary agency with jurisdiction over the attorney, the Court may refer the matter to such agency with a request that the agency report its actions to the Court. However, any action taken by the agency shall not necessarily preclude additional disciplinary action by this Court.

(2) Designate a magistrate judge or appoint special counsel to investigate the matter, to make appropriate recommendations to this Court, and to perform any other duty specified by the Court. The Court shall consider any recommendation made by the magistrate judge or special counsel but such recommendation will not be binding upon the Court.

(3) Provide written notice to the attorney specifying the alleged misconduct and affording the attorney an opportunity to explain, either verbally or in writing, why he or she believes that formal disciplinary proceedings should not be commenced.

(4) In cases where the attorney has been notified in accordance with subsection (3) and has failed to provide a satisfactory reason why formal disciplinary proceedings should not be commenced, or in cases where there does not appear to be any dispute with respect to the relevant facts, the Court may commence formal disciplinary proceedings in accordance with subsection (c) of this Rule.

(c) Commencement of Formal Proceedings.

(1) Formal disciplinary proceedings against an attorney shall be commenced by the issuance of an order by the Court directing the attorney to appear and show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against the attorney for reasons stated in the order.

(2) The order may be served upon the attorney by mailing a copy to him or her at the address provided by the attorney pursuant to these Local Rules or by any other means reasonably calculated to provide notice to the attorney.

(3) The attorney shall file a written response to the show cause order and the allegations of misconduct contained therein within 14 days from the date of the order. If any issue of fact is raised in the response or if the attorney wishes to be heard in mitigation, the Court shall set the matter for hearing in accordance with subsection (d) of this Rule.

(d) Hearing

(1) Forum. In the Court's discretion, any hearing conducted pursuant to this Rule 210 may be conducted before a magistrate judge designated by the Court, a single district judge or all of the active judges of the Court who are eligible and able to participate. However, if the disciplinary proceeding was initiated by a complaint by a district judge or a magistrate judge; or, if a magistrate judge made any recommendation to the Court pursuant to Rule 210(b)(2), any such hearing shall not be conducted by that judge or magistrate judge, nor shall that judge or magistrate judge participate in any decision or other action taken by the Court with respect to the matter.

(A) If the hearing is conducted by a district judge, the Court may authorize that district judge to order whatever disciplinary action is appropriate under these rules without further action by the Court.

(B) If the hearing is conducted by a magistrate judge, the magistrate judge shall submit findings of fact and recommendations for disposition to the Court and the Clerk shall serve a copy of the findings and recommendations upon the attorney and any special prosecutor appointed by the Court.

(C) Within 14 days from the date of the order, the attorney and/or any special prosecutor appointed by the Court may serve and file written objections to the report. Failure to file an objection within the 14-day period shall be deemed a waiver of any objection. Those portions of the magistrate judge's findings and recommendations to which objection is made shall be reviewed by the Court de novo based on the record compiled before the magistrate judge. The Court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge or it may receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

(2) Conduct of Hearing. The Court may elect to appoint a special prosecutor to present evidence at any disciplinary hearing and to cross-examine any witnesses. The respondent attorney shall have a similar right to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses and to be represented by counsel.

Effective 12/1/11: §§ (c)(3) and (d)(1)(C) amended. The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 12/1/09: §§ (c)(3) and (d)(1)(C) amended.

LR Gen 212 DISBARMENT BY CONSENT

(a) Procedure. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court who is the subject of an investigation into, or is a respondent in a pending proceeding involving, allegations of misconduct may consent to disbarment, but only by delivering to this Court an affidavit stating that the attorney wishes to consent to disbarment and that:

(1) The attorney's consent is freely and voluntarily given and the attorney is not subjected to coercion or duress; and

(2) The attorney is fully aware of the implications of consenting; and

(3) The attorney is aware of the pending investigation or proceeding and that grounds exist for disciplinary action, the nature of which the attorney shall specifically set forth; and

(4) The attorney acknowledges that the material facts alleged are true; and

(5) The attorney so consents because the attorney knows that the attorney could not successfully defend himself against the charges.

Upon receipt of the required affidavit, the Court shall enter an order disbarring the attorney.

(b) Confidentiality of Supporting Papers. The order disbarring the attorney on consent shall be a matter of public record. However, the affidavit required under the provisions of this rule shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this Court.

LR Gen 213 CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

(a) Criminal Convictions

(1) Summary Suspension. The Court shall enter an order immediately suspending an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court or who is admitted to practice pro hac vice from practicing before this Court upon receipt of:

(A) An official record of a finding of guilt or the return of a guilty verdict as to a serious crime, as hereinafter defined, or the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to such crime, in any court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, or;

(B) A certified copy of a judgment showing conviction of a serious crime, as hereinafter defined, in any court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States.

A copy of such order shall immediately be served upon the attorney as provided in LR Gen 210(c)(2). Upon good cause shown, the Court may set aside such order when it appears in the interest of justice to do so.

(2) Disciplinary proceeding. In addition to suspending the attorney, the Court shall issue a show cause order as provided in LR Gen 210(c), provided, however, that a disciplinary proceeding so instituted shall not be brought to final hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded.

An official record showing the entry of the finding of guilt, the return of a guilty verdict, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for any crime shall be conclusive evidence of the commission of that crime in any disciplinary proceeding instituted against that attorney based upon the conviction.

(3) Serious Crime. The term "serious crime" shall include any felony and any lesser crime, a necessary element of which, as determined by the statutory or common law definition of such crime in the jurisdiction where the judgment was entered, involves false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, willful failure to file or filing false income tax returns, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation, theft, or an attempt or a conspiracy with or solicitation of any other to commit a "serious crime."

(b) Reversal of Conviction. An attorney suspended under the provisions of this Rule will be reinstated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the conviction has been reversed but the reinstatement will not terminate any disciplinary proceeding then pending against the attorney.

Effective 12/1/11: §§(a)(1)(A) and (a)(2) amended. Effective 10/1/09: §(a)(1) amended and redesignated as (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B); §(a)(2) amended.

LR Gen 214 ACTION TAKEN BY OTHER COURTS OR DISCIPLINARY AGENCIES

(a) Show Cause Order. When a certified copy of a judgment or order is filed with this Court showing that an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court or who is admitted to practice before this Court pro hac vice has been disciplined or found incapacitated to practice by any other court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States or by any agency having disciplinary authority over attorneys, whether by reason of misconduct, mental infirmity or addiction to drugs or intoxicants, this Court shall, forthwith:

(1) provide the attorney with a copy of the judgment or order; and

(2) issue an order directing the attorney to show cause, within 14 days from the date of the order, why this Court should not impose the identical discipline and/or make a similar finding of incapacity.

In the event the action imposed in the other jurisdiction has been stayed there, any reciprocal action taken by this Court shall be deferred until such stay expires.

(b) Disciplinary Action. If the attorney fails to show cause within the aforesaid 14-day period, this Court shall impose the identical discipline or make the identical finding of incapacity.

(c) Effect of Decision by Other Tribunal.

(1) If, with respect to the action taken by the other tribunal, this Court finds:

(A) that the procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process, or

(B) that there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct or incapacity as to give rise to the clear conviction that this Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the tribunal's conclusion on that subject;

(C) that the imposition of the same discipline or the making of the same finding by this Court would result in grave injustice; or

(D) that the conduct at issue is deemed by this Court to warrant substantially different action, then this Court may enter such other orders as it deems appropriate.

(2) In all other respects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that an attorney has been guilty of misconduct or found incapacitated shall establish conclusively the misconduct or incapacity for purposes of any proceeding under this Rule.

Where an attorney has been found to be incapacitated, the Court shall enter an order placing the attorney on inactive status, in which case the attorney may not practice before this Court unless and until reinstated pursuant to LR Gen 215.

Effective 12/1/11: § (a)(2) amended. The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 12/1/09: §§ (a)(2) and (b) amended.

LR Gen 215 REINSTATEMENT OF MEMBERSHIP

(a) Application for Reinstatement.

(1) An individual who has ceased to be a member of the Bar of this Court for any reason, including disbarment, suspension, failure to comply with the requirements for continuation of membership, resignation or failure to renew membership in a timely manner, may apply for reinstatement by filing a completed application for reinstatement on a form provided by the Clerk and paying the applicable reinstatement fee established by the Court.

(2) An attorney who has been suspended also shall file an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the order of suspension along with the application for reinstatement.

(3) An attorney who has been disbarred after hearing or by consent may not apply for reinstatement until at least 5 years after the effective date of disbarment.

(4) An attorney who was placed on inactive status because of incapacity also shall file, along with his or her application, a written waiver of any doctor/patient privilege with respect to treatment of the attorney during the period of incapacity. In addition, such attorney shall disclose the name of every psychiatrist, psychologist, physician and hospital or other institution by whom or in which the attorney has been examined or treated for any condition or conditions relating to the incapacity since being placed on inactive status and a written consent authorizing each of them to disclose any relevant information and provide any relevant records requested by the Court or special counsel.

(b) Procedure on Application. In ruling on an application for reinstatement, the Court may proceed in any of the following ways:

(1) Summarily approve or reject the application if the appropriate action to be taken is clear from the face of the application and there are no facts in dispute.

(2) Designate a magistrate judge or appoint a special counsel to investigate and recommend to the Court whether or not the application should be approved; provided, however, that such recommendation will not be binding upon the Court.

(3) Promptly schedule the matter for a hearing before the Court, a single district judge designated by the Court or a magistrate judge designated by the Court. However, if a magistrate judge has made a recommendation pursuant to this subsection, the hearing shall not be conducted by that magistrate judge.

(A) If the hearing is conducted by a district judge, the Court may authorize that district judge to rule on the application without further action by the Court.

(B) If the hearing is conducted by a magistrate judge, the matter shall be dealt with in the manner described in Rule 210(d)(1)(B)-(C).

(c) Conduct of Hearing. At the hearing, the applicant shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is of good moral character and otherwise qualified and fit to practice law before this Court, and that the applicant's resumption of the practice of law before this Court will not adversely affect the interests of potential clients, public confidence in the integrity of the Bar of this Court or the proper administration of justice.

(1) The Court may elect or appoint a special counsel to present evidence at the hearing and to cross examine the witnesses.

(2) The applicant shall have a similar right to present evidence and cross examine witnesses and to be represented by counsel.

LR Gen 305 CONSEQUENCES OF ELECTRONIC FILING

(a) Filing Defined. The electronic filing of a document through ECF consistent with these Local Rules, together with the transmission of a NEF from the Court's ECF system, constitutes filing for all purposes of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court, and constitutes entry of the document on the docket maintained by the Clerk pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and 79 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 55.

(b) Confirmation of Court Filing. A document electronically filed through the Court's ECF transmission facilities shall be deemed filed on the date and time stated on the NEF received from the Court.

(c) Official Record. When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic recording of the document as stored by the Court, and the filing party is bound by the document as filed. Before filing a document with the Court, the Filing User must verify the accuracy and/or legibility of the document.

(d) Filing Deadlines. Electronic filing does not alter the filing deadline for that document. All electronic filings must be completed before midnight local time in order to be considered timely filed that day unless a different time is established by court order.

Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 306 ENTRY OF COURT-ISSUED DOCUMENTS

(a) Entry; Force and Effect. All orders, decrees and judgments of the Court will be filed electronically, and the minutes of proceedings will be entered electronically, in accordance with these Local Rules, which will constitute entry on the docket kept by the Clerk under Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and 79 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 55. Any order or other court-issued document filed electronically which contains a "/s/" in place of an original signature of a judge or clerk has the same force and effect as if the judge or clerk had signed a paper copy of the order and it had been entered on the docket in a conventional manner.

(b) Text Orders. A judge or authorized member of the Court staff may issue orders by a text-only entry on the Court's docket without an attached document. The text-only entry shall constitute the only Court order on the matter and such orders are official and binding. The parties will receive notice of such an order through the NEF.

(c) Proposed Orders. Proposed orders shall not be filed unless requested by the Court. When so requested, the Filing User shall submit a copy of the proposed order to the Clerk's Office by e-mail in word processing format.

LR Gen 307 DOCUMENT RETENTION REQUIREMENTS

Documents that are electronically filed and require original signatures other than that of the Filing User must be maintained in paper form by the Filing User until two years after a final decision has been rendered which disposes of all aspects of the case.

Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 308 SIGNATURES

(a) ECF Login and Password as Signature; Format of Signature Block. The user login and password required to submit documents to the ECF system shall serve as that user's signature for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 and for all other purposes under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and these Local Rules. All electronically filed documents must include a signature block and must set forth the attorney's name, bar registration number, address, telephone number, fax number and e-mail address. The name of the ECF user under whose login and password the document is submitted must be preceded by a "/s/" and typed in the space where the signature would otherwise appear.

(b) Restrictions on Use of ECF Login and Password. No Filing User or other person may knowingly permit or cause to permit a Filing User's password to be used by anyone other than an authorized agent of the Filing User.

(c) Documents Requiring Multiple Signatures. The filer of any document requiring more than one signature (e.g., pleadings filed by pro hac vice lawyers, stipulations, joint status reports) must list thereon all the names of other signatories by means of a "/s/" for each. By submitting such a document, the filing attorney certifies that each of the other signatories has expressly agreed to the form and substance of the document and that the filing attorney has their actual authority to submit the document electronically. A signatory or party who disputes the authenticity of an electronically filed document containing such "signatures" must file an objection to the document within 14 days of service of the NEF. The filing attorney shall retain any records evidencing this concurrence for future production, if necessary, in accordance with the Document Retention Requirements stated in LR Gen 307.

Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 309 SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

(a) Notice of Electronic Filing. Whenever a pleading or other document is filed electronically, the ECF system will automatically generate and send a NEF to the Filing User and registered users of record. The user filing the document should retain a paper or digital copy of the NEF, which shall serve as the Court's date-stamp and proof of filing.

(b) NEF as Service. Transmission of the NEF shall constitute service of the filed document and shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2)(E), Fed. R. Civ. P. 77(d) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49(b).

(c) Certificates of Service on Electronically Filed Documents. All documents filed using the ECF system shall include a certificate of service stating that the document has been filed electronically and that it is available for viewing and downloading from the ECF system. The certificate of service must identify the manner in which the service on each party was accomplished.

(d) Exemptions. Attorneys and pro se litigants who are not Filing Users must be conventionally served with any electronically filed documents in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(e) Time. Service by electronic means shall be treated the same as service by mail for the purpose of adding 3 days to the prescribed period to respond.

Known system outages will be posted on the Court's website, if possible.

(b) Filing Options. A Filing User experiencing a technical failure may conventionally file the document or send the PDF document to an email address set up by the Court, if it is accompanied by a declaration attesting to the Filing User's attempts to timely file the document using ECF.

(c) Relief. A Filing User whose filing is made untimely as the result of a technical failure of the Court's ECF site may seek appropriate relief from the Court.

(d) Filing User System Failure. Problems on the Filing User's end, such as connection problems, problems with the Filing User's Internet Service Provider (ISP), or hardware or software problems, will not constitute a technical failure under LR Gen 311(a) nor excuse an untimely filing. The Filing User must notify the Clerk's Office immediately upon learning of an error in the electronic filing or docketing of a document.

Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 313 PUBLIC ACCESS TO ELECTRONIC DOCKETS AND FILES

(a) Opening Statements. An opening statement shall not be argumentative and shall not exceed 30 minutes unless otherwise permitted by the Court. Counsel for a defendant may make an opening statement either after the opening statement of the plaintiff or after the plaintiff has rested. Counsel for a defendant may not make an opening statement after the plaintiff has rested unless evidence will be presented on behalf of that defendant.

(b) Recorded Conversations or Testimony.

(1) At least 14 days prior to empanelment, counsel for any party that proposes to offer a recorded conversation or any portion thereof as evidence shall furnish the Court and counsel with:

(A) a chronologically arranged list showing the date of, participants in, and approximate playing time of each such recording; and

(B) a transcript of each such conversation.

(2) Before offering any recorded conversation, counsel shall edit out footage that contains no audible discussion or contains irrelevant material so that the jury will not be required to listen for protracted periods of time to portions of recordings that provide little or no assistance in determining the pertinent facts. In order to achieve that objective, counsel shall meet and confer, in advance, in an effort to resolve any disputes with respect to editing.

(3) Within 7 days after such transcripts have been furnished or such other period of time as the Court may allow, counsel for any party disputing the audibility, completeness, or admissibility of any such recording or the accuracy of such transcript shall file an objection identifying the recording and/or transcript or the particular portion to which objection is being made as well as the nature of and grounds for the objection. (4) Any objections to the accuracy or completeness of transcripts shall be accompanied by copies of the transcripts objected to on which proposed deletions and corrections are noted.

(5) Any dispute regarding editing and/or the accuracy of transcripts shall be called to the Court’s attention promptly.

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection (b) may be considered by the Court as a waiver by the proponent of the right to offer the recorded conversation(s) at issue; or, alternatively, as a waiver of the right to object to admission of the recorded conversation(s) and/or to dispute the accuracy or completeness of the transcript, as the case may be.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) The Court, in its discretion, may limit the time for any trial, hearing, or other proceeding, for any argument, or for the examination of any witness or completing the examination of any witness in such manner and upon such terms as may be just under the circumstances.

(2) Upon request by a party, the Court, in its discretion, may extend any time limits established pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this Rule. In determining whether to extend such time limits, the Court may consider:

(A) whether the party has adequately explained the purposes for which the additional time would be used and why the additional evidence or argument to be presented is essential to fairly decide the matter;

(B) whether the party has effectively and efficiently made full use of the time allocated to that party; and

(C) any other matters that may be relevant.

(b) Conduct of View. The manner in which any view is conducted shall be determined by the trial judge. During a view, counsel shall not make any statements audible to the jury unless permitted by the trial judge.

Any request for continuance shall be made as soon as counsel learns, or in the exercise of due diligence should have learned, of the reason for the request and, except in emergencies, far enough in advance to permit the Court to reschedule the matter without creating any hardship on other parties or interfering with the efficient conduct of the Court's business.

(a) General. In cases where a dismissal stipulation has not been filed or a consent judgment has not been filed and entered by the Court prior to the time of empanelment and/or trial, counsel shall appear for empanelment and/or trial, unless excused by the Court.

(b) Jury Costs. In cases that are settled later than 7 days before the date scheduled for empanelment of a jury, jury costs may be assessed equally against the parties and/or their counsel unless a party demonstrates to the Court's satisfaction that:

(1) The costs should be borne entirely or primarily by one or more parties on the ground that the tardiness of the settlement was due to that party's failure to make a good-faith effort to settle the case earlier; or

(2) No costs should be assessed because all parties made a reasonable good faith effort to settle the case earlier.

(c) Settlements on Behalf of Minors or Incompetents. In order to obtain court approval of any settlement on behalf of a minor or incompetent, a motion for approval must be filed and approved by the Court. Motions for approval shall be accompanied by the following:

Time and Form. In cases where a plea agreement is reached, the government shall notify the Court of the existence of the plea agreement as soon as possible and file a written plea agreement with the Court at least 7 days prior to jury empanelment. The Court will consider the timeliness of the filing of a plea agreement when determining whether, in calculating the guideline sentence range, the defendant should receive a reduction for acceptance of responsibility. The Court will not accept any plea agreement that is not in writing.

Effective 12/1/11: The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 12/1/09: Rule amended. (c) Discovery Motions.

(2) No motions seeking discovery shall be filed unless counsel first confers with opposing counsel to determine if the information sought will be provided without the need for the filing of a motion.

(3) Any motion for discovery shall bear a certification by counsel for the movant:

(A) that all counsel concerned have conferred in good faith and have been unable to resolve the dispute(s); or

(B) that counsel for the movant has made a good faith attempt to confer with opposing counsel but that opposing counsel has failed to respond.

(d) Duty to Address Speedy Trial Act.

(1) All motions shall address:

(A) whether or not any delay occasioned by the making, hearing, or granting of that motion will constitute, in whole or in part, excludable time as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h); and if so, the estimated number of days to be excluded or how such excludable time shall be determined; and

(B) whether any previous motion(s) dealing with the same subject matter has, in the past, resulted in excludable time; and if so, the number of days that were excluded.

(2) Any party objecting to a motion shall include with the objection a statement as to whether it agrees or disagrees with the moving party's calculation under subsection (d)(1) of this rule.

(3) A party that requests a continuance and contends that the resulting delay should be excluded under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8) shall set forth reasons to support a finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of a continuance outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

(e) Need for Evidentiary Hearing. All motions and objections shall contain a statement by counsel as to whether oral argument and/or an evidentiary hearing is requested; and, if so, the estimated time that will be required.

(f) Speedy Trial Orders. Any such motion shall be served on all other parties, unless the Court, for good cause shown, permits the subpoena to be issued *ex part*e.

(B) "Good cause" for the issuance of an ex parte subpoena duces tecum shall require, among other things, a showing that the documents sought are relevant to the proceeding in question and that disclosure of the subpoena (or of the documents sought) could unfairly harm the party's case.

(C) All other parties shall be entitled to inspect any item produced unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(D) Any such subpoena, whether issued ex parte or upon notice, shall be returnable to the Court.

(2) Subpoenas for the Production At Trial or Hearing. All subpoenas for the production of documents, objects, and other material described in Fed. R. Crim. (a) Opening Statements. An opening statement shall not be argumentative and shall not exceed 30 minutes unless otherwise permitted by the Court. Counsel for the defendant may make an opening statement either after the opening statement of the government, or after the government has rested. Counsel for a defendant may not make an opening statement after the government has rested unless evidence will be presented on behalf of that defendant.

(b) Recorded Conversations or Testimony.

(1) At least 14 days prior to empanelment, counsel for any party that proposes to offer a recorded conversation or any portion thereof as evidence shall furnish the Court and counsel with:

(A) a chronologically arranged list showing the date of, participants in, and approximate playing time of each such recording; and

(B) a transcript of each such conversation.

(2) Before offering any recorded conversation, counsel shall edit out footage that contains no audible discussion or contains irrelevant material so that the jury will not be required to listen for protracted periods of time to portions of recordings that provide little or no assistance in determining the pertinent facts. In order to achieve that objective, counsel shall meet and confer, in advance, in an effort to resolve any disputes with respect to editing.

(3) Within 7 days after such transcripts have been furnished or such other period of time as the Court may allow, counsel for any party disputing the audibility, completeness, or admissibility of any such recording or the accuracy of such transcript shall file an objection identifying the recording and/or transcript or the particular portion to which objection is being made as well as the nature of and grounds for the objection. (4) Any objections to the accuracy or completeness of transcripts shall be accompanied by copies of the transcripts objected to on which proposed deletions and corrections are noted.

(5) Any dispute regarding editing and/or the accuracy of transcripts shall be called to the Court’s attention promptly.

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection (b) may be considered by the Court as a waiver by the proponent of the right to offer the recorded conversation(s) at issue; or, alternatively, as a waiver of the right to object to admission of the recorded conversation(s) and/or to dispute the accuracy or completeness of the transcript, as the case may be.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) The Court, in its discretion, may limit the time for any trial, hearing, or other proceeding, for any argument, or for the examination of any witness or completing the examination of any witness in such manner and upon such terms as may be just under the circumstances and with due regard for the defendant's constitutional right to a fair trial.

(2) Upon request by a party, the Court, in its discretion, may extend any time limits established pursuant to subsection (c)(1) of this Rule. In determining whether to extend such time limits, the Court may consider:

(A) whether the party has adequately explained the purposes for which the additional time would be used and why the additional evidence or argument to be presented is essential to fairly decide the matter;

(B) whether the party has effectively and efficiently made full use of the time allocated to that party; and

(C) any other matters that may be relevant.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN

(Amended March 1, 2006)

"DISCOURAGE LITIGATION, PERSUADE YOUR NEIGHBOR TO COMPROMISE WHENEVER YOU CAN. POINT OUT TO THEM HOW THE NOMINAL WINNER IS OFTEN A REAL LOSER-IN FEES, EXPENSES, AND WASTE OF TIME"

-Abraham Lincoln-

Amended
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN
United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island

Table of Contents

I. INTRODUCTION

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998 requires that each district court authorize the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in all civil actions, including adversary proceedings in bankruptcy. The United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island provides this manual as an overview of the Court's ADR Program. The program seeks to encourage mutually satisfactory resolution of disputes in the early stages of litigation. Such early case resolution is likely to make more efficient use of judicial and private resources.

II. ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Prior to the Rule 16 (b) Conference, the Court will include with the Notice and Order mailed to the parties, a brief summary of essential ADR information. Copies of the Plan are available upon written request to the ADR Administrator: 2 Exchange Terrace, Providence, RI 02903, and can also be found on the Court's website at www.rid.uscourts.gov.

III. CASES SUBJECT TO ADR

All civil cases filed in this district except bankruptcy appeals, prisoner matters, and social security appeals are eligible for referral to ADR. Voluntary ADR options are available. If parties do not select a voluntary option, they are referred to a Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference.

IV. DEFINITIONS

A. "Arbitration" is a non-binding, adjudicative process in which a neutral decides the rights and obligations of parties and imposes an appropriate remedy in the form of an award. (Where parties mutually consent, parties may opt to have their dispute resolved through "binding arbitration.")

B. "Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference" is a non-binding settlement process involving a Magistrate Judge, who works with the parties and their counsel to identify issues, promotes settlement dialogue and, if possible, resolves the dispute in a mutually acceptable way.

C. "Mediation" is a voluntary, non-binding dispute resolution method involving a neutral third party who tries to help the disputing parties reach a mutually agreeable solution.

D. "Settlement Authority" as used in this Plan means the individual with control of the full financial settlement resources involved in the case, including insurance and the full financial authority and ability to agree to a binding settlement agreement.

V. ADR ADMINISTRATOR

The ADR Administrator (the "Administrator") is appointed by the Chief Judge of the District Court and, while attached administratively to the Clerk's Office, reports directly to the Chief Judge. The Administrator possesses a full range of authority and responsibility to implement and direct the program options. In addition to directing and managing the court's ADR program, the Administrator also serves as a staff neutral, providing services as an arbitrator and mediator.

VI. PANEL OF NEUTRALS

The Court has established a panel of neutrals (the "Panel") comprised of individuals whose education, experience, training, and character qualifies them to act as neutrals in one or more of the ADR options implemented by the Court.

A. Appointment to the Panel

The Panel consists of persons appointed by the Chief Judge in consultation with the other district judges. Panel members may continue their appointment subject to demonstration of continued ADR education and the absence of any substantive change to the original application of the Panel member that would subject them to disqualification.

B. Qualifications and Training

Panel members are lawyers who have been admitted to the practice of law for at least ten years and who are currently members of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island. The panel also includes non-lawyers who possess special or unique expertise in particular fields and/or have substantial experience or training in one of the dispute resolution options, and are certified for inclusion on the Panel by the Court.

All persons selected as Panel members have undergone dispute resolution training prescribed by the Court, taken the oath set forth in 28 U.S.C. 453, and have agreed to follow the guidelines for the various options established by the Court.

C. Compensation

Magistrate judges presiding over settlement conferences and the Administrator serving in the capacity of arbitrator or mediator serve without compensation. Persons, other than the aforementioned, serving as neutrals receive no compensation for the first hour of their service. Thereafter, the parties are equally responsible for the neutral's compensation at a rate agreed to by the parties, but not to exceed $200 per hour.

D. Complaints, Reviews, and Appeals

1. Filing Complaints

Any participant in ADR who is dissatisfied with an aspect of the process, including the conduct of an ADR provider (other than a Magistrate Judge) or another participant, may file a written complaint with the Administrator. The complaint may be in the form of a letter and should include the name and docket number of the case, the names of the parties, counsel and ADR provider, the date(s) of the ADR proceeding, and the reason for the complaint. The Administrator shall keep a record of all complaints filed. Any participant in ADR with a complaint relative to the conduct of the ADR Administrator may file such complaint in writing with the Chief Judge.

2. Response to Complaints

Complaints from participants in ADR will be reviewed and addressed promptly. The Administrator will screen any complaints received and may discuss a complaint in confidence with the person who made it and with the ADR provider or other participants. The Administrator will then consider all information available. With the exception of complaints alleging material violations of the Local Rules, the Administrator may attempt to resolve a complaint informally, and if successful, may dismiss the complaint without further action. While protecting the confidentiality of information gathered during the investigation of a complaint, the Administrator will notify the person who made the complaint about the dismissal of the complaint. Otherwise, review of a complaint will be done in accordance with the procedures detailed below.

3. Review Procedures

If the Administrator initiates a review of the conduct of a participant in ADR (counsel, party or ADR provider) for any reason, the Administrator will notify the participant of the pending review in writing. The Administrator shall collect and review all pertinent information, including interviews with or written statements from the ADR provider, parties' counsel and court personnel. On the basis of the information gathered, the Administrator will make a recommendation as to what action to take. With regard to complaints about the conduct of ADR providers, options include, but are not limited to: terminating the review without action, setting conditions or requirements for the ADR provider to meet, or suspending or removing the ADR provider from the Panel. The Administrator will pass the recommendation to the Chief Judge or designee for review and approval. The Chief Judge may elect to conduct further investigation of the matter. Upon completion of the review, the Chief Judge may affirm or modify the Administrator's recommendation, or decide on alternative action. The decision of the Chief Judge shall be final. The Administrator will notify the complainant and the participant about whom the complaint was made in writing as to the outcome of the review.

4. Removal

The Administrator, after consultation with and the approval of the district judges, may remove or suspend an ADR provider from the Panel prior to completion of the review procedure upon the Administrator's determination that it is in the best interests of the ADR program to do so.

E. Conflict of Interest

A neutral must disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest. A neutral should not serve if he or she knows of a conflict, unless the conflict is not significant and the parties all consent; otherwise, a neutral must withdraw if a conflict is significant.

VII. THE PROCESS

A. Rules Governing the ADR Process

ADR conference(s) shall be conducted in accordance with procedures outlined in this Plan.

B. Scheduling ADR Conferences

Upon the selected neutral receiving notice from the Administrator of his/her designation as a neutral, the neutral shall file his/her acceptance of the designation with the Clerk's Office with a copy to the Administrator, and shall promptly schedule the first meeting with the parties within 30 days, unless otherwise directed by the Court. Magistrate Judges schedule their own settlement conferences.

C. Time Frame for Conducting & Concluding ADR Settlement Efforts

At the discretion of the assigned district judge, the time frame for conducting and concluding ADR may be set forth in the Order of Referral. The deadline for concluding ADR may be extended by the Court upon good cause shown.

D. Location of ADR Conferences

Conferences may be conducted at such locations as are agreeable to the parties and the neutral assigned to the case. Space is available to conduct ADR conferences in the United States Courthouse. If the Court's facilities are desired, arrangements shall be made with the Administrator.

E. Duty to Attend and Participate

Unless expressly excused by the judicial officer or neutral assigned to the case, all parties, counsel of record, and corporate representatives or claims professionals having full Settlement Authority as defined in Section IV, shall attend all ADR conferences and participate in good faith. Failure to meet obligations under these rules may lead to disciplinary action.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY IN ADR PROCEEDINGS

ADR proceedings must be conducted in a manner that encourages an informal and confidential exchange among counsel, the parties, and the ADR provider(s) to facilitate resolution of disputes. The parties and the ADR provider shall not disclose information regarding the process, including settlement terms, to the Court or to third persons unless all parties otherwise agree. Parties, counsel, and neutrals, however, may respond to confidential inquiries or surveys by persons authorized by the Court to evaluate the ADR program. Responses provided to such inquiries or surveys shall remain confidential and shall not be identified with particular cases.

The ADR process shall be treated as a compromise negotiation for purposes of the Federal Rules of Evidence. The ADR provider is disqualified as a witness, consultant, attorney, or expert in any pending or future action relating to the specific dispute, including actions between persons not parties to the ADR process.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY IN ADR COMMUNICATIONS

The Clerk will file and include in the Court's record only the order referring a case to ADR and other routine ADR scheduling and proceeding notices.

Panel members must not disclose to or discuss with anyone, including the designated judge, any information relating to the ADR proceedings unless the parties specifically authorize disclosure. ADR neutrals must secure and ensure the confidentiality of ADR proceeding records. Panel members designated to serve as neutrals must keep confidential from other parties any information obtained in individual caucuses unless the party to the caucus specifically authorizes disclosure.

X. ADR OPTIONS

MEDIATION

Upon agreement of the parties, the case may be mediated. Parties shall make known their desire to pursue mediation by informing the ADR Administrator or the Court at the time of the Rule 16 Conference.

Within 10 days after having elected to pursue mediation the parties must arrange to confer with the Court's ADR Administrator in order to select a mediator to assist the parties in the resolution of the case. The parties must select from the Court's list of approved mediators (unless the court permits otherwise).

Upon selecting a mediator and having advised the ADR Administrator of the same, the Administrator shall file with the Court, the name of the mediator. If the parties are unable to reach agreement on the selection of a mediator, the ADR Administrator shall select a person from the list whose experience and qualifications are well suited to the appointment and the needs of the parties.

1. Preliminaries to Mediation

   A. Promptly after accepting the appointment, the mediator shall schedule the mediation session. The mediator shall send written notice to all parties, with a copy to the ADR Administrator, of the date, time and location of the session. The mediation session shall be held within sixty (60) days of the mediator's acceptance unless extended by the Court for good cause. A request for postponement of a scheduled mediation session must be presented to the mediator and served upon the ADR Administrator without delay.

   B. The parties may be required to submit to the mediator a written, confidential summary of the case. The written summaries shall not be filed with, nor revealed to the Court.

2. Procedures at the Mediation Session

   Mediators are not bound to any particular procedure to effectuate settlement. The mediator may find it useful to meet separately with the parties in a caucus. Disclosures to the mediator in a caucus shall be treated confidentially unless the parties give permission to the mediator to use the disclosed information with the other party or parties. No transcripts or recordings shall be made of the proceedings.

   The mediator may determine, with the consent of the parties, or by leave of the court when it is the court's practice to require such leave, that one or more additional mediation sessions would assist in the settlement of the case, and, if so, schedule another session.

   The mediator shall report to the ADR Administrator only whether the case settled or not.

ARBITRATION

1. Actions Subject to Arbitration

   A. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and except as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c)) of 28 U.S.C. § 652 and subsection (d) of 28 U.S.C. § 654, this Court may allow the referral to arbitration of any civil action (including any adversary proceeding in bankruptcy) pending before it when the parties consent, except that referral to arbitration shall not be allowed when:

      (1) the action is based on an alleged violation of a right secured by the Constitution of the United States; (2) jurisdiction is based in whole or in part on section 28 U.S.C. §1343 ; or (3) the relief sought consists of money damages in an amount greater than $150,000 (the Court may presume damages are not in excess of $150,000 unless counsel certifies that damages exceed such amount).
